Product Data

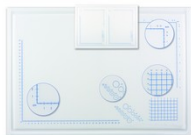

HDPE / PS

These dissection boards feature a large cutting area on one side, including dimensional scales in inches and centimeters, a grid and dimensional circles of different sizes. The other side offers two cutting boards half the size with the same dimensional features printed on each one of them.

- Drain groove is carved all around the edge of the boards in order to contain fluids
- All corners have rubber feet giving more stability to the working surface
- Bases are stackable and will not move sideways during the dissecting work
